

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Are you interested in a challenging, growth-oriented career opportunity? As a public policy partner of Focus on the Family, Family Policy Alliance advances biblical citizenship, equips and elects statesmen and women, promotes pro-family policy and serves an effective alliance, all committed to a common vision of a nation where God is honored, religious freedom flourishes, families thrive and life is cherished.

Family Policy Alliance considers every position one of ministry and a valued part of our team. Therefore, it is essential that all team members have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and fully subscribe to our Statement of Faith, Foundational Beliefs, Vision, Mission, Strategy, Shared Values and be able to demonstrate their sense of calling to work in a ministry that engages in the American system of government to affect the outcome of public policy, elections and culture for Christian values and families.

Family Policy Alliance is seeking candidates for the full-time position of Manager, Public Policy, who will manage the services and resources provided—including the creation of unique resources—to state Family Policy Allies (affiliates and associates) in the area of public policy, prioritizing requests from these groups aligned with Family Policy Alliance goals. This includes managing the Family Policy Alliance Knowledge Exchange in the area of public policy and the legislation tracking database service provided to Family Policy Alliance. The Manager, Public Policy also works with Strategy Team members to provide the research and content necessary to carry out the Strategy Team's annual plan of action to advance or oppose legislation at the state, national and local levels.

Qualifications include:

- A mature Christian faith and fully supportive of Family Policy Alliance's Statement of Faith and Foundational Beliefs (see www.familypolicyalliance.com/careers/).
- Bachelor's degree in a pertinent field of study such as political science, journalism, theology, philosophy or government required, while a graduate degree or significant experience in law, public policy, etc., preferred. An attorney is preferred for this role.
- Demonstrated desire to work in a ministry which engages in the American system of government to affect the outcome of public policy, legislation, elections and culture for Christian values and families.
- Participates in the development and execution of integrated policy, communications, messaging, alliance-building, legal, etc. strategies for implementation alliance wide, focusing especially on state FPA's.
- Takes leadership of the Family Policy Alliance Knowledge Exchange in the area of public policy and Family Policy Alliance's legislation tracking database service.
- Understands and applies campaign finance law for the affiliate state organizations. Assists in the gathering of information for, and filing of, necessary reports. This includes tracking affiliate state organization election activities. Understands and applies lobbying compliance laws for the affiliate state organizations. Assists in the filing of necessary reports.
- Conducts and participates in national and local media opportunities such as providing interviews and quotes for the purpose of promoting policy that advances FPA's vision and mission, and increasing brand awareness.
- May be asked to participate and present in conferences that promote alliance-building and legislative relationships.
- Strong relationship building skills, and ability to track relationships and activities in database, to accomplish goals.
- Persuasive and passionate oral and written communication skills, including public speaking and writing experience. Produce weekly email content.
- Able to work in a collaborative, team-centered environment, with limited supervision, while demonstrating a self-starter ability.
- Excellent organizational, planning and time-management skills, as well as flexibility in changing circumstances.
- Computer systems (e.g., MS Office suite, Luminate CRM/Salesforce) aptitude required and experience preferred.
- Location: Colorado Springs, Colorado; though there will be opportunities for this team member to gain practical lobbying experience in the field.
