

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Citizens Voice

Family Policy Alliance serves as both the winsome voice of biblical citizens and the catalyst for unleashing biblical citizenship. We help them stay informed and activate them to stand for their Christian values. We do this by engaging individuals through respectful, truthful conversation on issues affecting their families and communities. Family Policy Alliance motivates and equips concerned citizens with the tools and resources they need to make a powerful difference in our nation and states.

Specifically, Family Policy Alliance sent newsletters, mailers and

THE ORGANIZATION'S MISSION

FPA was organized as a religious corporation on April 2, 2004, and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act for religious purposes. FPA was formed to provide an educational service to parents and others who are concerned with healthy family living, toward the end of strengthening the family in its varied dimensions. In addition, Family Policy Alliance uses telephone technology and online resources, including websites and web videos to alert citizens to important issues affecting the family in their state and nation.

FPA is active in the promotion of social welfare by addressing the Christian community and the Christian's responsibility in the public policy arena, both locally and nationally. The organization uses regular media channels, such as radio, the internet, and events, to discuss critical legislation and policy matters that significantly impact Christian worldview issues. The organization is also used as a vehicle to discuss practical means for Christians to become educated and involved in public policy matters. The organization encourages Christians to be aware of and involved in their civic duties.

As a result, FPA advances biblical citizenship, equips and elects statesmen and women, promotes policy and serves an effective alliance, all committed to a common vision of a nation where God is honored, religious freedom flourishes, families thrive, and life is cherished.

Form 990, Part V, Line 2a:

Family Policy Alliance does not file any W-2s as all employees are outsourced from a professional employment organization. Family Policy Alliance reimburses the professional employment organization for the employees' compensation and the reimbursements are reported on 990 Part VII, Section A and 990 Part IX, Lines 5 - 10.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The Conflict of Interest Policy is reviewed annually during a Board of Directors meeting. Annual Disclosure Statements are signed by Directors, Officers and all employees. All statements are reviewed by the COO and the Controller/Treasurer reviews the COO's statement. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The independent members of the Board of Directors determine compensation of the organization's CEO by reviewing survey information and comparability data.

All these deliberations and decisions regarding compensation are documented as they occur. The participating members of the Board approving compensation are all independent Directors of the organization's Board of Directors.

Compensation of other officers and executive personnel is determined by the

Form 990, Part IX: Explanation of Employees and Compensation

A portion of the compensation reported in Part VII, Section A, column

(d) and (f) as paid by Family Policy Alliance (FPA) is reimbursed by

Family Policy Foundation (FPF) for work that FPA employees performed for FPF. Part VIII differs from the amounts reported on Part IX, Lines

5 and 7, as these amounts only reflect the compensation paid by FPA directly and not the portion reimbursed by FPF.
