

NATIONWIDE CALL TO PRAYER ON THE 50-YARD LINE

Sunday, April 24th

Pray for the Coach Who Was Fired for Praying

For years, Coach Kennedy would pray quietly on the 50-yard line following his games. Then, one day, the school fired him simply for praying by himself.

Now, his case is headed to the Supreme Court. Our friends at First Liberty Institute will be defending his God-given right to pray — a right that matters for all who cherish religious freedom and their relationship with God. We can't go with Coach to the High Court, but we can join together as believers to pray.

On Sunday, April 24th — the day before the Court hearing — people across the nation will be gathering on their local school's 50-yard line to pray for Coach Kennedy and religious freedom in America. Coach needs your prayers and so does our country!

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

- 1 COMMIT TO PRAY TOGETHER
Can you pray on a 50-yard line? If not, plan pray at your church or home—or wherever you are—on Sunday, April 24th.
- 2 SPREAD THE WORD
Let Coach and fellow believers know you plan to join this day of prayer on your social media accounts using #Pray50. Make an announcement at your church, send an email, or however you best share the news about upcoming events.
- 3 COME PRAY
Remember to pray together for Coach, his case, and religious freedom in America on Sunday the 24th.
- 4 USE THE HASHTAG
Share on social media how you are praying for Coach and our country. Pictures and videos are great! Use #Pray50 so that Coach and others can follow along.
