

NIGHT ONE A FIRM FOUNDATION

On night one, we lay a firm foundation with philosophical, spiritual, and practical training on effective school board service. Amanda Banks, Vice President of Education at Family Policy Foundation opens with an introduction to the School Board Academy and an overview of statesmanship—what it means and how to apply statesman principles to school board service.

SESSION 1: Worldview Training

An overview of six major worldviews with in-depth training on biblical worldview and its application to public service. Taught by Dr. Jeff Myers, president of Summit Ministries

SESSION 2: Parliamentary Procedure

A mini-course on Robert's Rules of Order and fundamentals of parliamentary procedure applied to school board meetings. Taught by Dr. Bill Gillmeister, president of Call to Order

SESSION 3: Preparing for Success

A practical discussion with veteran school board presidents on jurisdiction and laws that govern school boards, how to manage responsibilities and relationships, best practices for effective school board service, and more. Panelists include Indiana Rep. Joanna King; Kansas Sen. Renee Erickson; and Pennsylvania Rep. Barbara Gleim

NIGHT TWO CURRICULUM MATTERS

On our second night of training, we'll explore the critical—and often controversial—curriculum decisions faced by school boards. Participants will learn from national leaders on the topics of sociopolitical education, age-appropriate standards, sex education, parental rights, and more. Model policies and strategies for success will be offered in each session.
